PRIVACY AND INFORMATION POLICY

The Sunshine Coast Minor Hockey Association (SCMHA) values confidentiality and the individual's right to privacy. As such, we gather personal data such as names, addresses, and date of birth from players, members, potential members, coaches, referees, managers, and volunteers for the purpose of Hockey Programming.

Player information is gathered to verify compliance with Hockey Canada/Branch regulations regarding geographical location, division of play, and level of play specifics. Past team data is reviewed to determine if any SCMHA transfer regulations apply.

SCMHA is obligated to share specific information with governing bodies such as the Pacific Coast Amateur Hockey Association (PCAHA), BC Hockey, Hockey Canada, and the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF). Personal information is thus used for the registration process of sanctioned leagues and events.

- Please refer to the PCAHA, BC Hockey and Hockey Canada Privacy Policy documents to learn more about how they use and protect personal information.

Use of details collected is not for marketing or sale purposes. All team officials are required to comply with the privacy policy, and any distribution of team lists or phone numbers to entities outside of SCMHA is strictly prohibited.
